Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-62842-7 – Decoding Theory of Knowledge for the IB Diploma
Wendy Heydorn and Susan Jesudason
Table of Contents
More information

Contents

Introduction iv

Unit 1 Decoding knowledge

1 Types of knowledge and knowledge questions 1
2 Justification and evidence 11
3 Shared and personal knowledge 20

Unit 2 Decoding TOK knowledge frameworks and ways of knowing

4 Knowledge frameworks and ways of knowing 31
5 Mathematical knowledge framework 39
6 Scientific knowledge framework 50
7 Human sciences knowledge framework 62
8 History knowledge framework 72
9 Arts knowledge framework 81
10 Ethics knowledge framework 90
11 Religious knowledge framework 101
12 Indigenous knowledge framework 110

Unit 3 Decoding TOK assessment – the essay

13 Understanding the assessment requirements 120
14 Analysis, links and comparisons 125
15 Developing a thesis and constructing an argument 135
16 Introduction, examples and conclusion 139

Unit 4 Decoding TOK assessment – the presentation

17 Understanding the assessment requirements 144
18 Extracting a knowledge question from a real-life situation 150
19 Developing a successful presentation 156
20 The basics: delivery and structuring your ideas 162

Index 168

Acknowledgements 170

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org