

≡ BALI ENGEL ≡

A STORY ABOUT BELONGING

the hairyys

≡ WRITTEN AND ILLUSTRATED BY BALI ENGEL ≡

the hairyys

Far away, hidden somewhere between the mountains of Peru, lies a wonderful circus where people come from far and wide to be truly mesmerised.

Some travel weeks, even months, the visitors know that the journey will be long, but they can't wait to get there! They know it'll be worth it, they won't find anything like this anywhere else!

The circus was run by the Hairys, an extraordinary family. Their hair grew in abundance, covering their bodies in lengths of luscious, flowing strands. They could do wonderful things with it. There was Dad, Mum, and the twins. They were kings and queens of lion acts, gymnastics, and even trapeze. And then there was Ellie, the youngest one of all, she had hair absolutely everywhere!

Ellie's hair never stopped growing. Her family had to cut it every day, or miles of hair flowed from her head!

